

education cannot be accelerated beyond a certain point, it does believe that those who can proceed rapidly should be given the opportunity to do so.

PAYMENT OF FEES

The yearly fee is payable as follows:

	Full Fee	Reduced Fee
Six weeks before beginning of term	$200.00	$200.00
On entrance	$400.00	Two-fifths of balance
Opening date of next quarter	$400.00	Two-fifths of balance
Opening date of third quarter	$200.00	The balance

The College cannot guarantee that a place will be reserved for any student after a date six weeks before the beginning of the term unless $200 has been deposited with the College by this time. This deposit is not refundable except at Faculty discretion if the student withdraws after this date, since a withdrawal from a reserved place at the last moment may create a vacancy which otherwise would have been filled. When students are admitted after this date the deposit must be made within ten days of notification of acceptance and before arrival.

If a student attends all four quarters in a given year, the extra fee for the fourth quarter is due as follows: one half of fee for this quarter thirty days prior to opening date of quarter; balance on opening date of quarter.

The only other fees are:

Application fee	$ 5.00
Contingency deposit	$25.00
Examination for graduation	$25.00
Fee for late payment of any bill	$10.00

The application fee must accompany application for admission to the College and is not refundable. Applicants who are accepted by the College should make the contingency deposit of $25 within ten days of notification of acceptance, since admission does not become effective until this deposit is received. It is not refundable if the new student fails to enter. While a student is in attendance it must be maintained; but any unused portion of it is refunded upon graduation or withdrawal. Bills are payable on the date of the bill and if not paid within ten days are subject to the fee for late payment.

In cases where students are called into military service charges are made on an exact pro rata basis up to a week preceding the date of induction into the armed forces. Any amount in excess of this that has been paid is refunded. All future tuition payments although contracted for are of course canceled.
